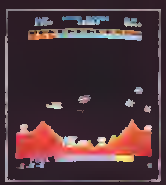
The Super Cobra Challenge. The 10,000-mile megablitz.

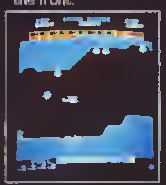
The challenge never ends with SUPER COBRA!

Ten years of training on present games couldn't prepare you for this Super Cobra has 10,000 miles of the toughest battle terrain you've ever seen And every 1,000 miles it gets rougher and then rougher.

The first game with continuous Play Option.
Super Cobra is the first game where the player can buy back in at the point he got knocked out. So if you get clobbered at the 3 000 mile point, 5,000 mile point or whatever point, just insert additional coins within 10 seconds hit the discharge button and pick up the game at the same point



Sidewinder Missiles, Satellites and flying saucers attack from the front.



Rockets gun turrets and moving tanks fire from below, while bombs drop from the ceiling

Player must pilot his ship over and around monolithic space stations

How To Play:
- Insert coins
- Select one or two player button

The Objective:
- To successfully cross 10,000 miles of enemy terrain, pick up the cache of gold and escape safely
- Every 1,000 miles, enemy attack pauses momentarily, then increases in intensity
- Enemy attacks at various points with missiles, tanks, flying saucers, satellites and more
- Player's ship not only must traverse enemy territory below, but must weave its way through mine catacombs avoiding cave's stalactites and stalagmites while enemy fires from above, below and sideways
- Player can make his ship go fast or slow, and steer it up or down
- Player can drop bombs on enemy encampments below, and fire sidewinder missiles ahead
- If player's ship hits an enemy missile, rams one of the monolithic space stations, or runs into a cave wall, his ship is destroyed
- Player is awarded additional aircraft when he reaches 10,000 points
- Game is over when all of player s aircraft are destroyed.
